Dear Sir:

I, Gregory C. Mayer, declare as follows:

1. I have been informed by the United States Patent and Trademark Office that the inventors' declaration filed in the above-identified application is illegible.
2. On November 12, 2004, I submitted a Submission of Legible Text of Inventors' Declaration, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A, that is in question of being accepted.
3. I have been associated with the law firm of Marshall, Gerstein & Borun LLP, and its predecessor firms, Marshall, Gerstein & Borun, Marshall, O'Toole, Gerstein, Murray & Borun, and Marshall, O'Toole, Gerstein, Murray & Bicknell (collectively, "Marshall et al."), since 1993, and I have been a partner with the firm and its predecessor firms, Marshall, Gerstein & Borun and Marshall, O'Toole, Gerstein, Murray & Borun, since 2000.
4. I am familiar with the standard form documents typically used for patent prosecution by Marshall et al., and the inventors' declaration that, according to Marshall et al.'s records, was originally filed in connection with the above-noted application on September 6, 2001.

5. The inventors' declaration that was originally filed on September 6, 2001, and that was accepted by the United States Patent Office, as evidenced by a Notice of Acceptance of Application Under 35 U.S.C [sic] 371 and 37 CFR 1.494 or 1.495, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B, is one of the standard form documents that was typically used for patent prosecution by Marshall et al. as of September 6, 2001.

7. I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 U.S.C. §1001 and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the above-identified application or any patent issued thereon.

Respectfully submitted,
